- Reasonable pricing
- Base Packages that include everything you need: tents, tables, chairs, linens, dishes, dance floor, DJ, sound system, event coordination, horse/carrriage, golf cart/driver, ice chests, lighting package, etc. (You would pay almost $5000 more than what you pay at Hidden River for the entire package.)
- Tasteful and affordable on-site lodging for your guests
- Shuttle Transportation included for guests when off-site accommodations are booked through Hidden River
- The exclusive options to purchase your own beer/wine at cost plus 20%
- Excellent preferred vendors who give you 15-40% discounts when you book them through Hidden River

Beauty, Simplicity, Loving-Kindness, and a Humble Spirit of Gratitude are values you will find at Hidden River.

The business practices of Hidden River are motivated by three primary ideals:

1. Offering wedding services in the region that keep costs reasonable and the focus of the couples on what is most important: their relationship
2. The preservation of historic Swannanoa Valley farm land, one of the last open valleys so close to the city
3. A business philosophy of "Love Multiplies!" that prompts the giving of a percentage of the cost of each event to local charities.

I can't think of a better way to start one's married life than to be surrounded by your friends and family, by the gentle sound of the Swannanoa River, and by our staff who takes every chance we can to help you feel loved in the months preceeding your event, on the day itself, and in the years to come. ~ Jeanne Sommer, Owner/Director/Officiant

PRICING

Pricing varies according to the day of the week you select and the time of the year (peak or off-peak seasons). All Saturday packages require 12-52 of your guests to utilize our on-site housing for up to three days (more days can be added if needed). When your guests pay us for your housing directly, the cost of your event is significantly reduced (by almost $3000). Sunday and weekday packages have the option of housing. Friday weddings do not have housing as an option. Please see the next page for further details.

VENDORS

You are free to add your own vendors if you wish, but there is a modest surcharge for doing so. Most people choose to go with our vendors--either immediately or soon after they have done some of their own searching--because all of our vendors are excellent and they give our clients exclusive discounts of 15% or more in order to work with us as "preferred vendors." Most venues require vendors to mark the client's pricing UP by 10% and then they receive that additional 10% directly from the vendor. This price increase may or may not be reflected clearly in the invoice you receive from your vendor. We function instead as a kind of "wedding broker," finding you the best pricing for the most excellent services. Our vendors give us this discount (sometimes up to 40%) because we can guarantee them a lot of business, because they enjoy working with us and at our beautiful venue, and because they share our desire to help our clients have a lovely wedding at a reasonable rate.

ALCOHOL

We allow our clients to serve beer/wine/sparkling wine on the premises. If you serve alcohol, you purchase it directly through our vendor who gives our clients an exclusive discount: "cost plus 20%" (a tremendous savings since alcohol is typically marked up at least 50-60%).

GUESTS

Our packages are priced for 150 guests. For up to 200 guests, there would be an additional charge of $10/guest beyond 150. If you go over 200 guests, we'd have to rent extra infrastructure (tables, chairs, etc.) from an outside source and the client would assume these additional charges. We definitely have enough space for larger events.

DETAILED PRICING FOR HIDDEN RIVER EVENTS

(Includes everything in our Standard Value Package unless otherwise noted)

All Saturday packages include 3 nights of housing on-site with the set-up for a Rehearsal Dinner on the Lawn of the Craggie View Guest House on the property for up to 42 guests. Clients have the option of upgrading to include the Rehearsal dinner set up on the main venue complex for a reduced rate and for more than 42 guests, if needed, along with a Sunday brunch set up for all on-site guests, as well.

The most cost effective option occurs when your guests who will be residing on-site pay Hidden River directly for their housing (via PayPal at least 30 days prior to your event). If none or just some of the housing is booked by your guests, the Client is responsible for paying the remaining portion of the fee, 30 days prior to the event date.
